Roberta is from Glasgow in Scotland and she's forty-three years old. She's married and her husband's name is Andrew. He's a teacher in a school for blind children. They have got three children – two boys and a girl. She has got two brothers. They are still in Scotland.

Her work

She's a Member of the Parliament, so she works in London on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays and in Scotland for the rest of the week. She enjoys her work very much, because she meets a lot of people and it is her job to help them. She works about fifty or sixty hours a week.

Her home

They have a flat in London, but her home is in Glasgow, and they have a large house there. There are about twelve rooms, and the house is like a hotel. A lot of people come and go. They have got a garden. There are flowers, vegetables and trees in it.

Her free time and now

She has very little free time. She likes having friends for dinner. They sit, drink and talk for hours. She enjoys the theatre, too. She loves the Edinburgh Festival. It is in August. She likes all kinds of music but especially folk music. It is Sunday afternoon now but they're watching TV at home because it's raining.
